

MARCH 2026

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
1  WOMEN'S MONTH	2 Spell Check History with the National Archives 	3  Add an Owl Prowl to your next birding adventure before the season slips away!	4 Explore Accessible Birding & Exploration Through Citizen Science Month  @3 pm ET	5	6  AURORASAURUS Aurorasaurus March 2026 Report-A-Thon	7
8  Spring Migration is here! Keep a lookout for hummingbirds heading north with Journey North	9 	10 Sharpen your observation skills with Budburst—spring is near! 	11	12  Search for Orion or Leo in the sky tonight with Globe at Night (Visible March 10-19!) 	14  Become a butterfly expert with eButterfly
15  Start looking for signs of Dragonfly Migration!	16	17 Search for rainbows with GLOBE Observer: Clouds 	18  New Moon, New Projects! 	19  Trash and Trails Monitoring Mapping Ukiyo-e Geography in Japanese Art 	20  World Frog Day Vernal (Spring) Equinox	21  International Day of Forests
22  World Water Day	23  MPing World Meteorological Day: Capture and Share Weird Weather!	24 Preparation Tip: Take the Foundations of Citizen Science Tutorial Prepare for Citizen Science Month!	25  Set your goal for April! Attend 2 citizen science events! Do 100 Acts of Science!	26  CITIZEN SCIENCE AT YOUR LIBRARY Find out what your local library might be planning!	27	28   ALL APRIL: Take part in the CoCoRaHS Rain Gauge Rally <small>SciStarter.org/cocorahs</small>
29  Small ACTS OF SCIENCE lead to BIG impact!	30  SIGNATURE EVENT Acts of Science: Connected Join from home or a local satellite event! Learn more at SciStarter.org/Connected	31	Citizen Science Month is here! See all events, featured projects, how to report Acts of Science & more at CitizenScienceMonth.org			OFFICIAL PARTNER OF AMERICA 	